Spring Variety

New Blood Beets 120 New Table Carrots GREEN PEAS 3qts 250 New Wax Beans 120 New Green Beans 15c New Bermuda Onions 100 New Summer Squash 100 New Best Greens New Garden Spinach 25c New Hearts Celery 10c New Loaf Cabbage New Bunch Turnips 100 at Mohegan park on the holiday PLENTY ASPARAGUS 12-15-180 Jersey Cucumbers 120 Sooth Cayenne Pines 50c

Red Bananas Oatman Oranges BROILERS $1.00 450 XXXX ROAST BEEF 280

SOMERS

Ready-to-Wear Clothing Exclusively

An Uunsual Offer

THE LAST DAY TODAY

A STRAW HAT FREE

With the purchase of one of our $18, $20 and $22.50

Men's and Young Men's

SEE OUR WINDOWS

Thune & Lowenberger

Ward Building,

Cor. Main and Market Sts.

Ernest E. Bullard VIOLIN TEACHER

All String Instruments repaired Violins sold on easy terms For appointments address E. E. BULLARD, Bliss Place, Nor-

FRENCH

Accordion-Fancy Plaiting Work NEW LONDON-NORWICH DYE WORKS 33 B'd'y, Norwich, Ct. Phone Con. Our Auto at your service

McVitie & Price's COLLEGE CREAMS and BUNTY BICUITS

at RALLIONS SPECIAL BARGAINS In Solid Gold and Gold Filled Bracelets, Rings and Lavaliers All the popular patterns in Bracelets and the latest designs in Rings and Lavaliers with any stone you may se-lect. See our window display. Old gold, silver, watches and jewelry ken in exchange or bought for cash

J. OGULNICK & CO., 32 Franklin Street, Norwic Telephone 714-12

WHEN YOU WANT to put your business before the public, there is no medium better than through the advertising columns of The Bulletin.

The Bulletin

Norwich, Saturday, May 29, 1915.

VARIOUS MATTERS

Remember-Lobster day at Powers Bros,'-adv.

Tomorrow will be generally ob-served as Patriotic Sunday. P. H. Ethier's store will close all day Monday, May 31st.—adv.

There will be several family picnics Rising temperature Friday did much Seedless Grapefruit 15c to improve the lagging spring trade.

> The fact that Monday is a holiday will mean extra business for the banks and libraries today,

A book recently received at Peck library is George J. Cox's Pottery for Artists, Craftsmen and Teachers

A class of children numbering 86 will receive first holy communion St. Patrick's church this morning.

man Towns recently celebrated in a quiet manner their 24th anniversary. Since the recent rains, some remarkably large and fine mushrooms have been found, unusual for so early in Supreme Vice President Ferdinand D'Esopo of the Order of Owls paid an official visit to New London nest Friday evening.

Visitors down the river are surprises to see how rapidly the new bridge of the New Haven road is being built Thursday afternoon Prof. J. Herbert George of Sedgwick Post. G. A. R., visited the county home and gave an inspiring talk to the 82 pupils.

At Washington, D. C., the com-mencement of the Catholic university, where there are Norwich professors and pupils will be held June 16.

Quail are said to be very tame this spring. They are met in the roads where they show no hurry and feed in the front yards in and about Bolton.

U acknowledges free-will offering, in-cluding Hanover $5, South Willington $13.08, Putnam $5, Goshen $3, Ashford For a residential street, more flags were flying on an average on Prospect street, Friday, Children's day of City Beautiful week, than in any section of the city. The funeral of Charles H. Gray was attended by friends from North Ston-ington, Ledyard, Norwich, Jewett City, South Canterbury, Lisbon and nearby places.-Moosup Journal. There promises to be an abundance of snowballs, swamp apple blossoms, wild geraniums, buttercups, hawthorn, deutsia and other easily obtainable lowers for tomorrow's decorations. Mentioned among arrivals at Lenox Friday was the Rt. Rev. Thomas F. Davies at the Eggleston cottage.

Bishop Davies in former seasons has his summers at Watch Hill. Members from Eastern Connecticut will go to Hartford Monday, when the Mount St. Joseph Alumnae asso-ciation will hold its annual reunion at Mount St. Joseph seminary, Hamilton

The upper apartment in the attractively remodeled house of Mrs. H. D. Rallion, on Oak street, has been leased by Fred C. Crowell and son, who have moved from Laurel Hill Mrs. Cornelia Jewell observed the 93d anniversary of her birth Tuesday lives, George Jewell, in Webster, Mass, was born in Ashford, Conn., May Work on Fenwick bridge used by many local automobile drivers, is rap-idly progressing and Contractor Hol-brook expects to have it completed about June 1. New spiles and planks are being put in.

Monday morning at 8 o'clock there will be offered in St. Patrick's church a month's mind mass for the happy repose of the soul of the late Michael J. Kelly, to which relatives and friends are invited to attend .- adv.

County Director William H. McGuinless and other local temperance workers have been notified that the forty-fifth annual convention of the Cath-olic Total Abstinence union of Amer-ican is to be held at Pittsburgh, Aug.

The 20th annual meeting of the General Association of Connecticut and the 59th annual meeting of the Gen-eral Conference of Congregational Churches of Connecticut are to be held at the Center church house, Hartford, June 1

The annual choir service at Christ The annual choir service at Carist Episcopal church will be held at 4.30 o'clock Sunday afternoon with the awarding of medals. The choir will be assisted by Miss Helen Lathrop Per-kins. All are invited.—adv.

The will of Nelson W. Aldrich, former United States senator, whose widow was Miss Chapman of Norwich, was admitted to probate Thursday in the probate court of Warwick. The estate is said to be worth at least $30,000,000, with an estimated annual income of $1,500,000.

Only Three Years Old. Groton Long Point has a $20,000 Venetian Yacht harbor, club house, 75 new cottages, running water, electricity, 1-2 mile board walk, new $15,000 entrance road and bridge. Perfect sandy beach and only good peo-ple. Send for booklet B. Lots $245 up on easy payments. Jas. Jay Smith Co., New London.—adv.

OBITUARY.

Charles E. Converse.

Charles E. Converse, 70 years old, ited suddenly of heart disease in his nome in Springfield shortly after 11 clock Thursday morning. Although the had not been well for about a year, Mr. Converse was apparently all right. He left his house and went down town in the morning and soon after returning home went up stairs in a weakened dition. A physician was called, but Converse died before he arrived. Mr. Converse died before he arrived.

Mr. Converse was born in Stafford Springs, Conn., and for many years was in the drygoods business in Poughkeepsie, N. Y. For the past five years he had lived in Springfield. He leaves one brother, Edward Monson; two sisters, Mary A. Converse, and Florence H. Converse, of Springfield, and one son, J. Alden Converse, Hanover, N. H., a student in Dartmouth college. The funeral will take place today and the body will be taken to Stafford Springs, Conn., for burial.

Now that political suits are fashion-Detroit Advertiser

PERSONALS

Frank Park of Noank is visiting

James Nagle of New London was forwich Thursday. P. J. McKay of Sterling was a vis-

Miss Mae E. Smith is in Boston to attend the wedding of a relative. Mrs. Luella Gager of Stonington le spending the week with Norwick friends.

Mrs. John Baton and Mrs. J. S. Gov. Wauregan were recent visitors

Msis Mary I. Millett, and her niece Leah Levalley, of Central Village, have been Norwich visitors.

Mrs. Percy W. Alden of Williaman-sett, Mass., is visiting her parents, Mr. anr Mrs. William E. Calkins of Myers

Miss Beatrice Huber was at her home in Moosup from Backus hospital, Norwich, for a brief stay early in

Mrs. James Purcell of Montauk ave nue, New London, has been admitted as a patient at the state tuberculosis natorium at Norwich. I. H. Stoddard and family are at Homewood, Lord's Point, for several weeks, and are entertaining Mrs. H H. LaPierre of Narwich. Edson S. Bishop who has resided in Hartford for a number of years past, has returned here and has taken a residence on Elmwood avenue.

Rev. J. C. Peza of New Rochelle, N Y., and Rev. James Williams of Bridgeport were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. D. McKnight while in this city.

MADE PROMPT RECOVERY OF STOLEN MONEY

Police Locate Boy Who Confesses t Theft in Greeneville. The explanation of the disappear nce of $34 from the till of the grocery store of P. H. Ethier in Greeneville runk at his home and the amount aken was recovered, less what the boy ad paid for two pieces of pie and cigarettes. The boy was in the store about 1 o'clock Friday afternoon and got a chance at the till while Mr. Ethier went out of the place for a minute or two. He took only the bills. He was arrested early in the evening with two veeding for a market gardener. iceman Casey making the arrest. The Ethier store.

DEVELOPMENT COMMITTEE HELD ANNUAL MEETING

J. T. Cruttenden Was Re-elected President at Meeting at New London.

At their annual meeting in Nev Condon on Friday the members of the Eastern Connecticut Development committee elected the following officers to serve the coming year: President,
Joseph T. Cruttenden, Crescent
Beach; first vice president, Jay M.
Shepard, Willimantic; second vice president, L. O. Williams, Putnam; third vice president, F. L. Hopkins Danielson: secretary and treasurer, C W. Pearson, Norwich.

Among the speakers at a lunched at 12.30 were Dr. J. H. Townsend of New Haven, secretary of the state board of health; Dr. J. T. Black, health officer of New London, and Miss Eliza beth Wright, bursar of the Connecticu College for women

SCHOOLS WERE VISITED. Ladies Spoke Upon The Topic of Clean City.

The different schools of the town ere visited Friday by sixteen mem-ers and aids of the school committee f the City Beautiful association. Ev-

The visitors were greatly assisted through the tender of the cars of Col. Charles W. Gale, Mrs. Channing M. Huntington, Mrs. Charles D. Noyes. Mrs. William H. Fitch and Mrs. Eben dish, donated by Mrs. Sarah Hill;

Mrs. N. Sullivan, tray cloth, donated by Mrs. Mrs. Mrs. William; Mrs. Chanles D. Noyes.
M. V. Murphy.

Gish, donated by Mrs. Sarah Hill;
Mrs. N. Sullivan, tray cloth, donated by Mrs. Mrs. Mrs. William; Mrs. Chanles D. Noyes.
M. V. Murphy.

Gentlemen: A. R. Portelance, um-

The assignments and visitors were Mrs. William B. Birge, Miss Fan-ling, St. Patricks, St. Mary's and St. Joseph's Polish; Mrs. Henry M. Pollock, Broadway and Bridge; Mrs. Edson F. Gallaudet, West Thames and Edson F Gallaudet, West Thames and East Great Plain; Mrs. Elisha E. Rogers. Boswell avenue and Hobart avenue, (latter now closed); Miss N. E. Lucas, Sachem street; Mrs. Channing M. Huntington and Mrs. George Guard, Greeneville and Laurel Hill; Mrs. G. W. Lane, Town Street; Mrs. John D. Hall and Mrs. Ebenezer Learned, West Town Street and Yantic: Miss Henrietta Bidwell Countries: tic; Miss Henrietta Bidwell, County Home and Long Society; Mrs. J. Dana Coit, Franklin Suck's Private school;

Paul F. Keating sub-deacon.

The church was well filled, many fraternal, social and business associates of the deceased attending.

During the service at the church

James N. Kelley sang Some Sweet

Day, Interment was at St. Mary's cemetery.

The bearers were Hon. Bryan F Mahan, John M. Callahan, Willi May, Edward S. Neilan, James R. May and P. L. Shea. Among the mourners were Albert Fournier of Norwich, Mr. and Mrs. Jeorge Gaucher of New York city, George Gaucher of New York city, Mrs. A. E. Frechette of Holyoke, Mass., Miss Bertha Peltier of New York, Os-car Peltier of New York, Dr. Noah Fournier of Montreal, Can., Mr. and Mrs. John Fournier of Springfield, Mass., Mrs. Moses Fournier of Spring-field, Mass., John Fournier of Daniel-son.

Both Dogs in the Manger. Many peace plans are advanced for fexico, but will not Villa and Carranza find 'em all reeking with trea-sonable suggestions? — Washington

DISPOSED OF AT SHORT CALENDAR

Judge Gardiner Greene Heard Motions Argued-Judgment for $503 in New London Case-Denied Motion to Set Aside $25 Verdict in Dog Biting Case—Assignments for Court Business.

en made. In the case of the Savings Bank of New London against Edwin A. Card and others of Groton in which foreclosure judgment on three mortgages on two pieces of property was given last week permission was given by request of the plaintiff to open the judgment and amend the complaint. The foreolosure judgment on mortgages for $3,000 and $500 on a 100 foot plot of land on Church street, Groton, stands, but the third count is strick-en out reerring to a $2,500 mortgage on land and premises on the Grotor Bank river road. Bond of $75 for prosecution was or dered filed in two weeks in Isaac Kir-man vs. George W. Mahoney.

Leave to file and motion to strike out was argued in Thames Loan & Trust Co. vs. Aetna Construction Co., which was a suit brought for $20,000 to collect on a note for $16,649.39 given on June 24, 1913. The motion to strike out was granted in part.

In the receivership matter of the Thames Loan & Trust Co. a hearing on petition for set-off was given and counsel are to prepare and submit an order. Attorney Petits and Receiver.

Thames Loan and Trust Matters.

order. Attorney Pettis and Receiver Browning were heard in arguments on the matter. Gilbert P. Coates of Montville tes-

J. Twomey at police headquarters that the had taken the money.

He told where it was hidden in a runk at his home and the second discount of $17.92 under the name of the G. P. Coates company and another for $59.74 under the title of the Coates Pouling Parks. pany and another for $59.74 under the title of the Coates Poultry Feeder company. The Thames Loan and Trust company holds the note of Mr. Coates for the sum of $100. He said the smaller amount has been set off and be desired the larger amount to be he desired the larger amount to be treated in the same manner. He ad-mitted he had recently received a dividend of about $13. Browning did not make Receiver objection and the court said after the eeded order was made out he would ensider the case finally.

Denied Motion to Set Aside A motion to set aside the verdict and for a new trial was argued by Attorneys C. W. Comsotck and A. M. Brown in the case of John W. Street against Anton Leemis. Street sued Leemis or $5,000 damages because of a dog that belonged to the latter bit-ing Street in the leg, but the jury last week gave Street a verdict of $25 and costs. Attorney Comstock moved to have the vedict set aside, but Judge ne denied the motion Then Attorney Comstock brought up

WHIST GIVEN B Y CATHOLIC WOMAN'S CLUB Social and Financial Success-

75 Tables Played. In the basement of St. Patrick's church a whist with 75 tables playing was conducted Friday evening by the Catholic Woman's club, with much success, both socially and financially. Besides the whist there were several tables of forty five and a list of pretty and useful prizes was awarded for Those to take the prizes in whist Ladies-Miss Katherine Mulaney, cut glass salad bowl, donated by Mrs. M. H. Donohue; Mrs. William Bresnabers and aids of the school committee of the City Beautiful association. Everywhere the visitors were cordially received by the teachers and spoke to the pupils on the topic of a Clean City. In addition to the list announced, Mrs. Horatio Bigelow and Mrs. Ozias Dodge aided by taking two of the assignments of Mrs. H. M. Pollock.

M. H. Donohue; Mrs. William Bresnahan, cut glass sugar and creamer, donated by Mrs. Nelson Disco; Miss Emma Portelance, center piece, donated by Miss Annie McGrory; Miss Mary Sullivan, hand painted cake plate, donated by Mrs. George A. Mansfield; Miss Mollie Callahan, chocolate pot, donated by Mrs. E. Mc-Namara; Mrs. Jos. Wood, bon bon dish donated by Mrs. Sarah Hill; dish, donated by Mrs. Sarah Hill: Mrs. N. Sullivan, tray cloth, donated by Mrs. M. Sullivan; Miss May

Gentlemen: A. R. Portelance, um-brella, donated by J. B Shannon; Ge-rard Desmond, box of cigars, donated by Mrs. Jas. Canty; Henry Fontaine brass ash tray, donated by a friend; Frank Grodoski, picture ,donated by Frank Grodoski, picture ,donated by Rev. J. H. Broderick; Albert White, pipe, donated by James Canty; James LaPoint, ivory mirror, donated by Mrs. M. T. Harriman; George Madden, toast and tea set, donated by Jas. F. Fenton; T. F. Burns, plant, donated by Mrs. Jos. T. Woods; T. J. Leary, necktie donated by Mrs. T. C. Murphy; William Shea, stocking bag, donated by Mrs. Philip Spelman.

Rev. Frank I. Kuster, Mayor T. C. Murphy and James F. Fenton acted as announcers and judges. The forty-five was in charge of A. J. Wholey, R. G. Holmes, F. W. Sylvia with L. Mc-Grory as scorer, and the prizes were Home and Long Coit, Franklin Suck's Private school;
Mrs. H. O. Johnson, Mrs. John Kukla, Pearl and High Street, Scotland Road, Wequonnoc and Sacred Heart at Taftville and Occum schools.
L. O. Smith visited Norwich Free Academy at 8.26 Friday morning and addressed the students with regard to

Addressed the students with regard to

FUNERAL.

FUNERAL.

Alexander E. Fournier.

The funeral of Alexander E. Fournier was held Friday morning at 8.30 from his residence, 11 Tilley street, New London. Solemn requiem high mass was celebrated at St. Mary's Star of the Sea church at 9 o'clock. Rev. John F. Sheehan was celebrant, Rev. Alexander Wollschlager deacon and Rev. Paul F. Keating sub-deacon.

The general committee in charge comprised Mrs. W. H. Donohue, president, and Mrs. J. R. McNamara, Mrs. James Canty, Mrs. James Canty, Mrs. James F. Fenton, Mrs. Sarah Hill, Mrs. M. T. Harriman, Mrs. George P. Madden, Mrs. Philip Spelman, Mrs. James T. Woods, Mrs. Nellie Sullivan, Mrs. Nelson C. Disco, Mrs. D. T. Shea, Mrs. D. J. McCormick and Mrs. R. M. Powers.

The church was delebrant, Rev. Alexander Wollschlager deacon and Rev. Paul F. Keating sub-deacon. and Mrs R. M. Powers.

The scorers for the whist were the Misses M. Shea, M. Canty, M. Wholey, Irene Wholey, A. Leahy, F. Canty, D. Madden, A. Murphy, C. Desmond, H. McCarthy, S. Donohue, M. Bresnahan, R. Crawford, M. Carroll, W. Bgan, L. Powers, M. Shields, M. Delaney, M. McCarthy and C. Lee,

BAPTIZE IN RIVER. Converts of Gospel Mission to Be Im mersed by Evangelist Peabody.

Evangelist T. H. Peabody of the Gospel Mission of this city is to baptize several of their converts in the Yantic river at Quarter bridge, at Norwich Town, Sunday at 1 o'clock. This will be a very interesting ser-vice, especially to those who have never seen converts baptized in a river. A very hearty invitation is ex-tended to everybody to come and enjoy this riverside service. The car from the square at 12.15 will arrive there in good season for those coming on it to witness the full service.

Ideal Job for Bryan.

There was a short calendar session of the superior court here on Friday before Judge Gardiner Greene, which occupied most of the morning.

Judgment for $503.04 according to Judgment for $503.04 according to the sworn bill of particulars and with costs of $61.19 was given in the case of Frederick C. Chidsey of New London against Elliott K. Taylor of the same place. The suit was brought to collect a bill for photographic materials, running from March, 1913, to October, 1914, and totalling $1,256.79 on which $753.75 in cash payments had been made.

Judge Greene said the clerk could adjust the matter of costs according to the rules.

Judge Greene said the clerk could adjust the matter of costs according to the flag is a deep mystery and unless it is solved before parade time Monday afternoon the was will have to look elsewhere for a banner.

It is not believed that anyone has stolen the flag, but rather that sometiment was filed.

Postponed.

Postponed.

Matters that were postponed were the following: Edmund J. Condon, petition or reinstatement as attorney at law; N. S. Lippitt and others, bank commissioners, vs. Thames Loan & Truts Co., approval of receiver's third semi-annual account; Lucy A. Neff vs. Raymond A. Neff, motion or alimony pendente lite; Jacob Gordon vs. C. F. Thaver receiver, argument of de-Thayer, receeiver, argument of de-murrer; Norwich Savings society vs. Charles W. Briggs, and others, fore-closure: Walter W. Philbrick, admin-istrator, vs. N. Y., N. H. & H. R. R. Co., demurrer and motion to expunge; Lewis H. Scranton vs. Thames River Specialties Co., argument of motion for more specific statement.

Two matters that went off were in I. Arthur Allen and others vs. Allen-Beeman Co., order to sell personal property, and in Norwich Industrial mprovement Co. vs. Fenton Building Co. and others, order allowing plaintiff's claim against defendant, The Fenton Building Co., and order for payment of costs as a preferred claim.

Judge Assigned to New Haven. After the session had opened Judge Greene informed the lawyers that he had been notified by the chief justice that he had been assigned to open the criminal term in New Haven on June 18, which would make it necessary to hurry up matters here, but he said he would endeaver to have the chief juswould endeavor to have the chief jusce make a change in the assigni Judge Greene said also that there would be no short calendar session next Friday as he will be out of town n that day.

Assignment for Trial. The case of Gager, admr., vs. Gor-on, was put down for arguments on next Wednesday and it will be fol-lowed by Hickey vs. Miller and Roma s the Thames River Specialties com-

Any. The cases assigned for June 8 will stand and these matters were put down for June 9: Hoberik vs. Lee, Soslowsky vs. Kozlovski, Brinski vs. American Strawboard company. June 10, Bertha Hantmann vs. John H. Ryan, Norton vs. Norton, Claga vs. American Strawboard company.

June 11, Wildred L. Trac June 11, Wildred L. Tracy vs. Charles H. Tracy. June 15, Avery vs. Spicer, F. W. Barber vs. G A. and P. Tea company. The court was informed that the ase of Alfred Gagne vs. Harry Gau-her alias — and others was set-

PAPER STOCK ON her alias

tled

FIRE AT THAMESVILLE. Mill Fire Fighters and City Depart ment Busy Several Hours.

A lively blaze in a large pile of paper at the plant of the American Strawboard company at Thamesville kept the local firemen busy for over an hour on Friday afternoon and the paper company's department were kept at work for several hours in addition.

The fire broke out about 4 o'clock, and a telephone call to the fire department was answered by the autochem-ical from the Central station and the West Side Chemical company. auto company laid 550 feet of hose and remained at the scene for over an hour. The hose was left in charge of the paper company's men by the firemen when they returned to the Central station. The paper company's men had two lines of hose laid, making three lines in all. A pet cat which makes its home in the West Side station was on the chemical wagon when the call was sent in and as it didn't have time to get off the wagon before the company was on the way to the fire, had to remain aboard and took the ride both

COMEDY PLAYLET Given at Trinity Methodist Church-Under Missionary Society Auspices.

A comedy playlet, Packing the Missionary Barrel, was given before a propriated good sized audience in the Sunday a repair school rooms of Trinity Methodist square. Is bury, and a reading by Viola Seavy followed. Miss Elizabeth Lane entertained with a violin selection, and dur- las from his rack and then he set ing the intermission ice cream was sold under the direction of Mrs. Frank The playlet was staged after the in-termission and the cast was as fol-

Mrs. Brown, hostess. Mrs. Ernest M. Newbury Mrs. Dimps, short and stout,
Mrs. Costello Lippitt Mrs. Flynn, a simpering spinster, Mrs. F. H. Allen ised. Mrs. Green, a bosser, Mrs. L. A. Worcester

Mrs. Jones, a confirmed invalid, Mrs. James McKee Mrs. Lamb, a widow, Mrs. George Guard
Mrs. Marks,
Mrs. J. T. Young
Mrs. White,
Mrs. Henry Woodward
Willing Helpers.

Mrs. Hicks, a strong minded woman, Mrs. B. F. Pendleton Sophie, a Polish girl, Miss Ina Seavy Mrs. F. W. Coleman was in general harge of the programme and Mrs. J. Morgan acted as business manager.

For Her 9th Birthday,

Marguerite Preston, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Preston entertained ten young friends Friday afternoon from 4 to 6 o'clock at her home on Dunham street in honor of her 9th birthday. Games of all kinds made the time pass very quickly. The donkey game was entered into with much spirit by the little people. The first prize was won by Anna Ulrich, Nellie McCarthy taking the consolation prize, a rubber Sandwiches, cake and fruit salad were served. A large birthday cake taking the place of honor, Many pretty gifts were received by the young hostess. The guests were Olive Rathbun, Hulda Russell, Muriel Holdredge, May Ulrich, Ruble Faulkner, Julia Ulrich, Nellie McCarthy, May Ulrich and Lucile Preston.

They Need Reinforcements.

British mobs should go to Flanders (they wish to fight.—Philadelphia for a nation, say, like China.—Spring-field Union.

The opinion seems to be quite general that William Jennings Bryan would be an ideal secretary of state for a nation, say, like China.—Spring-field Union.

Two Men.

Mr. Taft's warm public approval of the note to Germany attracts attention, and so does Mr. Roseveit's flat refusal to be quoted. —Springfield Republican.

SEDGWICK POST BANNER

MISSING FROM MEMORIAL Grand Army Men Hope to Have It Restored in Time for Parademorial Day Plans.

The big silk banner of Sedgwick post, No. 1, G. A. R., which every Memorial day afternoon floats proudly in front of the vets' ranks, is missing from its favorite resting place, the war office, at Buckingham Memorial and cannot be found, despite the rigorous search made by the post officials, who have looked into every room and cubby hole in the building. We've searched the building from top to bottom, said a post official on Friday evening, and all that has been found is the lower half of the staff. What is the lower half of the staff. What has become of the flag is a deep mystery and unless it is solved before parade time Monday afternoon the purposes and forgotten to return it. The flag has the inscription Sedgwick Post, No. 1, G. A. R., and is quite valuable. It is sincerely hoped that whoever has the flag will return it to Buckingham Memorial in time for the Memorial day parade. Memorial day parade.

As announced several weeks ago, the veterans will depart from their custom of marching in the ranks and will ride in automobiles, this being possible through the generosity of the patriotic sons of Norwich. The parade will form in line in front of Buckingham Memorial and will move promptly at 2 o'clock, in charge of Chief Marshal 2 o clock, in charge of Chief Marshai Col, Charles W. Gale, who will be as-sisted by Leonard O. Smith, J. Henry Shannon, Arthur D. Lathrop, Caspar K. Bailey, Frank T. Maples and Otto

Veterans of Sedgwick Post, No. G. A. R.

Citizens' corps,
Boy Scouts,
Mayor and Members of Court of Common Council. Town Officials

The line of march will be through Main street, through Washington street to Williams avenue to a point in front of the residence of Rev. S. H. Howe, D. D., where a turn to the left and approach will be made onto Chelea Parade, the military companies eading the way, directly to the monwhere the exercises will The order of exercises will be as Selection by band. Reading of orders. Gettysburg Address, by Comrade eorge. Reading of obituary record. Decorating the monument-Professor eorge. Memorial Address lichard P. Freeman. Address -

Prayer by Acting Chaplain Orrin M

Singing of America. The exercises will be concluded by eturn to Buckingham Memorial, then the disbanding will take place. The Woman's Relief corps will serve eturn to efreshments to the post members and heir invited guests in the Memorial. Regarding the flowers for the graves, Regarding the flowers for the graves, those residing in the city south of Greeneville, may leave their flowers at Buckingham Memorial, while those residing in Greeneville may leave flowers at the Greeneville schoolhouse. The Norwich Town people may leave their flowers at the chapel up town, where they will be cared for by the Boy Scouts, who will take them to Chelsea Parade Monday morning, before 10 Scouts, who will take them to Chelsea Parade Monday morning, before 10 clock where they will be used for med with real lace, and wore a corsage

Adjutant James McKee will raise Yantic cemetery at sunrise Monday May 1, to the peak of the flagstaff and then lower it to half mast until noon when it will be raised again to the

he exercises govern themselves ac-SET MIRROR TRAP

WHICH SHOWED THIEF Light Fingered One Was Revealed As He Lifted Umbrella.

A well known local character who is apparently getting ready for a "rainy day" has within the past few days apthree umbrellas from shop on Franklin In addition to the umbrellas he got a suction cleaner and also got away. It is thought that his present address is Fishers Island ing the evening for a short wedding trip, and upon their return will re-Episcopal church on Friday evening by las he got a suction cleaner and also the Woman's Missionary society.

The evening's programme opened with a plano solo by Waldo S. New- where he took refuge after his thefts were discovered. The proprietor the repair shop missed two umb two umbreitrap for the thief and the trap worked o perfection. His workbench is op posite the entrance and he works with his back to the door. By placing a ooking glass in front him he was able to watch the entrance and by this means discovered who the intruder was. He allowed him to take the third umbrella and meeting him later on the street demanded return of the three umbrellas which the thief promised. The thief then went after the umbrellas and failed to return. It was also discovered that he had made away with a suction cleaner which had been left in the repair shop

Scholarship at Bryn Mawr. Miss Efizabeth Darlington Adams aughter of Rev. and Mrs. H. T. Adams of New London, has awarded a $200 scholarship at Bryn Mawr, state of Pennsylvania, for the year of 1915-1916. Miss Adams will graduate from Vassar next month with honors, Rev. Mr. Adams is pas-tor of the Montauk Avenue church in Moose Initiated One. One candidate was initiated at the egular business meeting of Norwick Jonn., lodge, No. 950, L. O. O. M., a the Moose home on Friday evening. The lodge has accepted an invitation to attend a Moose initiation ceremony in New London on June 13. The lodge now stands fifth in the library con-test and the members are working hard for the prize.

California in 1914 produced 39,000,

CASTORIA For Infants and Children In Use For Over 30 Years Always bears Cal H. Witches, Signature of Chal H. Witches, Pullen-Gregson.

Wtih each detail in music, flora ecorations and color scheme combin ing to make it a singularly beautiful and impressive ceremony, the largest and most brilliant wedding of the seaand most brilliant wedding of the season took place on Friday evening in the Central Baptist church, when Miss Irene Gregson became the bride of Weston Carpenter Pullen and at the hour of the ceremony, for which 450 invitations had been issued, the church was filled with a fashionable assemblage of the friends of the bridal couple, including a number of guests from out of town.

For over a half hour preceding the

For over a half hour preceding the time set for the wedding the following programme was rendered upon the organ by Professor Frank L. Far-

Introduction to the third act of * Lohengrin Wagner Adagio Cantabile Beethoven Toccato Frysinger Laudate Dominum Sheld

Forming a floral bank before which the ceremony was performed, palms and ferns with spiraea and marguer-ites were gracefully arranged upon the pulpit and the color scheme in the church decorations in white upon the green background was further carried out in the organ gallery, where there was a screen of palms with spiraea. The section of seats reserved for the guests was indicated by white rib-bons with bouquets of blushing bride gladioli and antherium.

The ceremony was at 7.30, the bridal party entering by the south aisle to the music of the bridal chorus from Lohengrin. The eight ushers, W. Rus-Shannon, Arthur D. Lathrop, Caspar K. Balley, Frank T. Maples and Otto F. Ernst.

The procession will be made up as follows:

Platoon of Police.
Chief Marshal Col. Charles W. Gale, and Aides.

Tubbs' Band, John M. Swahn, conductor.
Fifth Company, C. A. C., Capt. W. G. Tarbox.
Third Company, C. A. C., Capt. George E. Church.
Sons of Veterans, Sedgwick camp, No. 1.
Veterans of Sedgwick Post, No. 1, Miss Christine Gregson, the bride's sister. The bride entered with her father, Squire Gregson, and at the altar met the groom, who had entered by the other aisle, with his best man, his brother, Benedict C. Pullen.

The bride was most exquisitely gowned in white satin with princess lace and court train, her veil of princess lace arranged in cap effect with organge blossoms. She wore the gift of the groom, a diamond and with cream lace with short veil of filet lace and net and carried an arm bouquet of pink roses and white marguerites. The color scheme for the bridesmaids was pink and blue, four in pink, made in colonial design, and each bridesmaid carried a pink basket with large pink bows, pink roses and maiden hair fern.

The full Episcopal double service was used. Rev. Dr. J. B. Slowas used. Rev. Dr. J. B. Slo cum, pastor of the church officiating assisted by Rev. Dr. S. H. Howe, pas tor of the Park Congregational churc At the benedictory prayer the brida couple knelt upon a white satin pillow review and dress parade by Coast arranged in a bank of fern, and durtillery.

After the exercises the parade will (MacDowell), was softly rendered upon the organ.

The recessional was the Mendelsson wedding march, the bridal party leav-ing the church by the north aisle. After the ceremony there was a reception from 8 to 10 for about 100

American flag at the soldiers' lot rose point and duchess lace and or antic cemetery at sunrise Monday.

The floral decorations at the hou when it will be raised again to the peak and remain so until sundown. The adjutant has had this work in charge for many years.

It is the wish of Commander Vine to the peak and remain so until sundown. It is the wish of Commander Vine to the peak and white roses and blushed in bridge gladfoll were used in profusion with maiden hair fern and a canonical to the peak and white roses and blushed in profusion with maiden hair fern and a canonical to the peak and remain so until sundown. The dining room, where a bridal wedding breakfast was served for the bridal party was lovely with its decorations in gladioli and lilies of the valley on the table, while the brides maids baskets were used for the man-tel decorations. Mrs. W. Russel Baird, Mrs. Lee Roy Robbins, Mis. Elizabeth Pullen and Earle C. Mathew-son were included with the bridal party at the breakfast. The Harmony club played during the evening and the floral decoration were by Geduldig. The wedding date was the 25th wed ding anniversary of the wedding the parents of the bride.

We advertise exactly

You don't need to Diamond be an expert you don't need to choose between the good and near

OUR CLOTHES ARE ALL GOOD. You simply decide on the price you want to pay and the pattern. We fit you, and guarantee your satisfaction. We'll show you our entire stock as cheerfully as a single garment.

$12. to $25. and all prices between. Straw Hats $1.50 to $15.00

REDUCE THOSE DANGEROUS SWOLLEN VEINS

Physicians are prescribing and hospitals are using a new and harmless, yet very powerful germicide that not only causes enlarged or varicose veins and bunches to become normal, but also reduces goitre, enlarged glands and wens. Ask any first class druggist for an original two-ounce bottle of Emerald Oil (full strength) and refuse to accept anything in its place. It is such a highly concentrated preparation that two ounces lasts a long time and furthermore, if this wonderful discovery does not produce results, you can have the price refunded.

It is not wise for anyone to allow swollen veins to keep on enlarging. Often they burst and cause weeks of pain, suffering and loss of employment. Start the Emerald Oil treatment as directions advise and improvement will begin at once.

CUMMINGS & RING Funeral Directors and Embalmers

337 MAIN STREET Opposite Post Office.

Phone 321-2 Lady Assistant de in apartments at the Sachem flats. Mr. Pullen, who is with the Norwich Evening Record, of which his father Evening Record, of which his father is proprietor, is a graduate of the Norwich Free Academy in the class of 1997 and his bride is a graduate in the class of 1914. There was a beautiful display of wedding gifts from their host of friends. The gift of the bride to the groom was a gold watch and chain. The bride presented the maid of honor a pierced gold bracelet and to the bridesmaids pearl and sanmaid of honor a piercea gold bracker and to the bridesmaids pearl and sap-phire lavallieres and chains. The groom's gift to the best man was a stickpin pin, diamond on black onyx. and to the ushers he gave silver tipped initialed canes with silver bands. The guests from out of town cluded: Mr. and Mrs. Norris S. L. bitt, New Haven; Mrs. Thomas She pard, Lawrence, Mass.; Mr. and Mrs. James R. Wells, Springfield, Mass.; Mrs. F. W. Way and Miss Anna Way, Lowell; Miss Marion Wells, Brooklyn; Mr. and Mrs. Henry D. Arnold, Neworgange blossoms. She wore the organge blossoms. She wore the gift of the groom, a diamond and platinum lavalliere and chain, and carried a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley and white orchids.

The maid of honor was beautifully gowned in rose pink faille trimmed with cream lace with short veil of column, Boston; Charles Ewing, Provents of the groom of the statement of the cream lace with short veil of column, Boston; Charles Ewing, Provents of the groom of the groom of the cream lace with short veil of column, Boston; Charles Ewing, Provents of the groom of the groom of the cream lace with short veil of column, Boston; Charles Ewing, Provents of the groom of the groom of the cream lace with short veil of column, Boston; Charles Ewing, Provents of the groom of the groom

Does Sewing Tire You? You should experience no dis-omfort in doing the finest kind of embroidery or sewing if you wear correct glasses or have perfect vision. or sewing for any length of time you should consult our Regis-

skill and experience are at your Established 1872

THE PLAUT-CADDEN CO. PLAUT-CADDEN BUILDING Opticians and Lense Grinders,

Look for the Clock

Send That Order For Fresh VEGETABLES and FRUIT

to RALLION'S

We Have a Fine Selection of Rings

SPECIAL FOR THIS WEEK

Extra Large, Fine Color.

These Rings cannot be duplicated for less than $25.00 anywhere in the city.

The Wm. Friswell Co., 25-27 Franklin Street,

Norwich, Conn.

WHEN YOU WANT to put your business before the public, there is no medium better than through the ad-